Institute of Pacific Relations.
Founded 1925; headquarters, Honolulu. A self-governing and self-directing body concerned with promoting the best relations between the Pacific peoples to avoid misunderstandings and conflicts and to promote friendship and cooperation. Originally called Conference on Problems of the Pacific Peoples. The governing body is the Pacific Council, comprising one member each from the national councils.
The present national councils are as follows:
American Institute of Pacific Relations.
Australian Institute of International Affairs.
Canadian Institute of International Affairs.
China Institute of Pacific Relations.
Indian Council of World Affairs.
Royal Institute of International Affairs.
Japanese Council, Institute of Pacific Relations.
Netherlands-Netherlands-India Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations.
New Zealand Branch, Institute of Pacific Relations.
Philippine Council, Institute of Pacific Relations.
U. S. S. R. Council, Institute of Pacific Relations.
In the Library of Congress catalogue the councils which have their own names are entered directly under those names, e. g.
Canadian Institute of International Affairs with reference from Institute of Pacific Relations. Canadian Council.
The councils which are without individual names are entered as subdivisions under the Institute of Pacific Relations, e. g.
